Tasting visits are welcome

Monday - Saturday, subject to availability.

While tasting our ciders, we will talk about the Armagh Bramley Apple and its unique PGI status, the history of Ballinteggart House and Armagh Cider. How it came about and plans for the future. As the cider mill and bottling hall are in production every day they are not open for visits but depending on the weather the orchards can be enjoyed. A picture gallery will show the whole process of how we make our cider 'from blossom to bottle'.
